Book Donations

Proceeds from library book sales contribute to library's annual operating costs, and the success of our book sales rely on your generous donations. Library staff may review donated materials to select suitable items for the library's collection, however the majority of the items go into the library's book sales. Unsold books may be donated to other area nonprofits or recycled.

We gladly accept:

- books in good condition (clean, dry and mold-free)
- commercially recorded media: music on CD, audio books on CD and movies or TV shows on DVD and Blu-ray
- Jigsaw puzzles with complete pieces

Sorry, but we can't take:

- technical or legal manuals
- textbooks, theses, dissertations, or bulk packs or other study materials
- Encyclopedias
- Outdated media (i.e. VHS, cassettes, CD-ROMs, computer software or games)
- Travel guides more than 5 years old
- Homemade media recordings
- Damaged Items (i.e. broken bindings, missing pages, soiled, musty, moldy, smoke damaged, water damaged, or with excessive writing and/or highlighting in the text)
